

One and more than one
 A. Fill in the blanks below. Write a before a word which shows one. Write s after a word to show more than one.

One

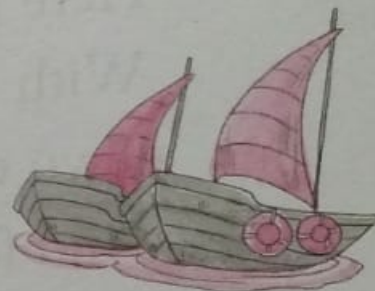

a balloon

.....

.....

boats

a crow

.....

.....

horses

a shoe

.....

Let's learn grammar

One and more than one

Look at each picture and read the words.

One
a cat

More than one three cats

a jet

two jets

a girl

four girls

Remember: We add -s to make some words mean more than one.

A. Fill in the blanks as shown.

1.

a boy

boys

2.

a cake

3.

a kite

4.

bells

5.

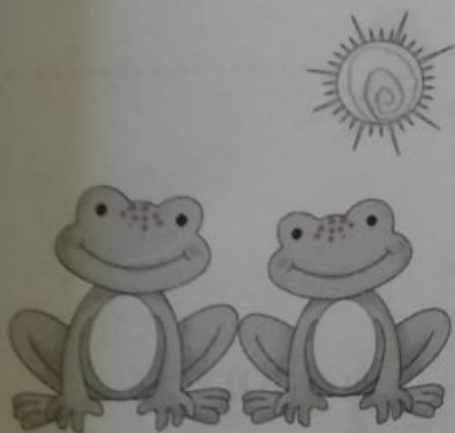

birds

Grammar in use

A Frog Poem

Here is one frog
With one mouth
Two eyes
And four legs.

Here are two frogs
With two mouths
Four eyes
And eight legs.

(adapted from a Chinese poem)

Remember: We add -s to make some words mean more than one.

We use is for one.

We use are for more than one.